Solagen Ltd is looking for European business partners!

Solagen would like to offer you the opportunity to become a Solagen distributor – This is an exciting opportunity to be associated with a market leading, award winning business.

The Solagen brand is now firmly established in the UK - Solagen are the UK's premier manufacturers of solar powered highway products and are now looking to promote the Solagen brand across Europe.

As a Solagen distributor, you would have the opportunity to sell and promote Solagen's solar-powered products in your respective markets. Prospective partners must possess a commercial profile with good knowledge of the industry and a strong environmental commitment. A commitment to quality is also an essential requisite.
